

To remove this law would be an injustice to the voters who put you in office.